

STOP THE Uinta COUNTY IMMIGRATION PRISON

EMAIL: CONTACT@WYOSAYNO.COM
WEBSITE: WYOSAYNO.COM

As Wyoming faith leaders, we are well aware of the stain left on our state by the World War II Japanese-American interment at the Heart Mountain Relocation Center.

We are also aware of the stain left on too many U.S. communities by the pattern of human rights abuses committed by private, for-profit prison corporations including those abuses charged against CoreCivic, the company solicited by the Uinta County Commissioners to build an immigrant prison in Wyoming.

Supporters argue CoreCivic will create “good jobs” in Uinta County. But, Violationtracker alleges the company has been penalized more than $12.3 million since 2000 for wage and hour violations, employment discrimination, labor relations offenses, and workplace safety and health and motor vehicle safety violations.

The undersigned are versed in Scriptures telling of God’s love for the vulnerable, challenging us to think beyond nationality, ethnicity, and political talking points and to extend love even to foreigners.

We invite you to do your own research. Don’t accept what we say or what the County Commissioners or CoreCivic and its supporters say. Simply Google CoreCivic. You will find documentation of the companies many abuses.

If this company or another builds an immigrant prison in Wyoming, the day will come when Wyoming people will lament the decision as they lament Heart Mountain.

We call on all people of faith to prayerfully consider this proposal, to be led by scripture and your own hearts and to think deeply about our values. As Wyoming faith leaders, our values are not for sale.

For these reasons, we stand united in saying no to the proposed immigration prison in Uinta County.
